Rebecca's practice focuses on probate, conservatorships, guardianships and estate planning. This includes drafting trusts, wills, powers of attorney, healthcare directives, deeds and other estate planning documents, as well as advising clients of their duties and fiduciary responsibilities.

Ms. Thyne serves on the probate volunteer panel of the Los Angeles Superior Court, and has represented executors, administrators, trustees, conservators, conservatees, guardians and minors in numerous court proceedings.

Following her graduation from the University of California at Los Angeles, Ms. Thyne taught elementary school in Princeton, New Jersey, and later founded and operated a clinic for educationally handicapped children in San Marino, California. She received her law degree from Loyola Marymount University.
