LITIGATION

Lagerlof LLP has an active and robust litigation practice ranging from trusts and estates litigation to a wide variety of business and civil litigation.

Our attorneys represent individuals, trustees and other fiduciaries, public entities and business entities before local, state and federal courts, as well as in administrative tribunals. We are experienced and skilled in handling matters from investigation and pre-litigation through trial and post-judgment proceedings.

We always strive to obtain the best result through thorough analysis and preparation while remaining sensitive to the economics of litigation.

While aggressively representing our clients, our attorneys continually search for appropriate value-added solutions and resolutions, whether through negotiated settlement, mediation, arbitration or motion practice and trial.
