Jon has been fortunate to learn his trade from some of the very finest lawyers in the country. He applies that top level of skill, diligence, and understanding to every matter in his office.

Leaving the downtown big firms and boutiques behind, Jon opened his estate planning practice in Pasadena in 2006 to focus on estate planning, trust and probate matters for families and business owners. He is a California State Bar-certified specialist in estate planning, trust and probate law.

Jon's estate planning experience includes multinational families and business succession planning. He speaks and reads Mandarin Chinese with high proficiency. He handles complex trust and probate administrations involving estate and gift tax, asset allocation, accounting, creditor, property tax, income tax, and appraisal issues. With a strong litigation background, he manages a wide range of probate litigation including will contests, elder abuse claims, breach of trust claims, contested conservatorships, and property ownership disputes.

Jon obtained his law degree from UCLA Law School. He has a passion for community service and currently serves as a council member for the city of South Pasadena.
