EMPLOYMENT LAW

Lagerlof, LLP's employment law team advises and defends management in all business and employee related matters.

The expertise of our attorneys allows us to serve clients that range from sole proprietors to multinational corporations. We serve our clients by developing programs that improve and define employment relationships to reduce the risk of disputes and litigation.

Our goal is to proactively work with business owners and management to minimize workplace issues and create a positive and productive workplace environment. Our attorneys provide our clients with constant up-to-date and relevant employment policies, employee handbooks, and agreements. In the event that litigation is unavoidable, we provide experienced representation to effectively work toward the best outcome for our clients. We represent clients at all levels, from administrative agencies to jury trials in state and federal courts.

In addition, our attorneys have deep knowledge in unfair competition and trade secret matters. We work closely with clients advising new businesses and directing principals on how to properly notify prospective customers as well as protecting the customer base and proprietary information of established businesses.

“Mr. Kien C. Tiet effectively resolved an employment/labor case for me in two months. The case was previously handled by another attorney for two years, with no progress but monthly payments and frustration. Mr. Tiet was sincere, honest and effective. He patiently listened to my case, asked questions, provided legal analysis and suggestions. Proactively and effectively, Kien communicated with the other party and reached a win-win solution to my full satisfaction. His fee is more than fair. Mr. Tiet is an attorney with both competency and ethicsness.”
