

Amanda Bunn

Associate Attorney
abunn@lagerlof.com

Amanda is an Associate Attorney at Lagerlof, LLP, practicing in the areas of Estate Planning, Tax, and Trust Administration. She assists clients with a wide range of estate plans—from foundational documents to advanced planning strategies involving gifting and tax planning. Amanda also has experience preparing estate and gift tax returns, helping clients navigate the complexities of tax compliance and wealth transfer.

Amanda's interest in these practice areas stems from her strong business background. She earned her Master of Business Administration from the University of Southern California and previously worked in the logistics and solar energy industries. Through these experiences, she developed an appreciation for strategic problem-solving and found herself most engaged with the legal aspects of business operations—ultimately leading her to pursue a career in law.

Amanda received her Bachelor's Degree from Texas Christian University, where she double majored in Supply Chain Management and Spanish, and later earned her Juris Doctor from the University of San Diego. During law school, she worked at Lagerlof, LLP as a summer associate, focusing on corporate and tax matters. She also served as an Articles Editor for the Journal of Climate and Energy Law, further strengthening her research, writing, and analytical skills.

As a mother, Amanda deeply understands the importance of planning for one's family and future. She connects personally with clients who want to ensure their children are financially protected and their wishes are clearly expressed. Her practical, empathetic approach helps families navigate sensitive decisions with confidence and peace of mind.

Amanda was recognized by Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch in 2025 for her work in Trusts and Estates, a testament to her dedication and skill in serving her clients.
