

Michael L. Tajima

Senior Counsel
mtajima@lagerlof.com

Michael is Senior Counsel at Lagerlof, LLP, where he focuses his practice on advanced estate planning, trust administration, tax controversy, international tax and estate planning, and mergers and acquisitions. He has extensive experience representing clients before the IRS and the California Franchise Tax Board, assisting with the repatriation of foreign situs assets for U.S. beneficiaries, and helping establish foreign subsidiaries while ensuring compliance with European anti-money laundering regulations.

Michael earned his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science (Comparative) from University of California San Diego, his Juris Doctor from Loyola Law School, and his LL.M. in Taxation (International) from Boston University School of Law. He is admitted to practice law in California and is a member of both the Japanese Bar Association and the Korean Bar Association. Michael also formerly served as a member of the California Lawyers Association Corporate and Pass-Through Entities Committee. He currently serves on the Board of Directors for Pasadena Village.

In addition to his legal practice, Michael has contributed to the legal profession through his publication, "Electing Small Business Trust Quick Point," published in CA Tax Lawyer, Volume 31, Issue 2 (2022).

Outside the office, Michael enjoys practicing Judo, playing golf, and deep-sea fishing.

EDUCATION

University of California San Diego – Bachelor of Arts
Political Science (Comparative)
Loyola Law School - Juris Doctorate
Boston University School of Law - LLM Taxation
(International)

BAR ADMISSIONS

California

AWARDS & RECOGNITIONS

Former member of the California Lawyers Association
Corporate and Pass-Through Entities Committee
Publications: "Electing Small Business Trust Quick
Point" CA Tax Lawyer, Volume 31, Issue 2 (2022)

LANGUAGES

English
Japanese
Korean

