

Jeff Priester, CPA

Controller
jpriester@lagerlof.com

Jeff Priester serves as Controller at Lagerlof, LLP, where he oversees the firm's financial operations and ensures the accurate and proper handling of all funds entrusted to the firm.

Jeff brings more than 15 years of accounting experience to Lagerlof, LLP. He began his career in 2010 as a bookkeeper for a local small business, where he gained practical, hands-on experience with day-to-day financial management. He then moved into public accounting, first with an Irvine-based firm and later with KPMG LLP, one of the "Big Four" accounting firms.

Throughout his career, Jeff has built deep expertise in business organization, risk management, and internal controls. At Lagerlof, LLP, he applies that knowledge to maintain strong financial governance and support the firm's commitment to integrity and client trust.
